Animals' Best Friends Barbara J. King, 2021-03-23 King's Animals Best Friends is the most comprehensive exploration I've read of the complex relationship between the human and nonhuman full of great insights and practical information Jeff VanderMeer New York Times Book Review By the Book Finalist for the 2021 Siskiyou Prize for New Environmental Literature As people come to understand more about animals inner lives the intricacies of their thoughts and the emotions that are expressed every day by whales and cows octopus and mice even bees we feel a growing compassion a desire to better their lives But how do we translate this compassion into helping other creatures both those that are and are not our pets Bringing together the latest science with heartfelt storytelling Animals Best Friends reveals the opportunities we have in everyday life to help animals in our homes in the wild in zoos and in science labs as well as those considered to be food Barbara J King an expert on animal cognition and emotion guides us on a journey both animal and deeply human We meet cows living relaxed lives in an animal sanctuary and cows with plastic portals in their sides at a university research station We observe bison free roaming at Yellowstone National Park and chimpanzees confined to zoos We learn with King how to negotiate vegetarian preferences in omnivore restaurants We experience the touch of a giant Pacific octopus tasting King's skin with one of his long neuron rich arms We reflect on animal testing as King shares her own experience as the survivor of a particularly nasty cancer And in a moment all too familiar to many of us we recover from a close encounter with two spiders in the home This is a book not of shaming and limitation but of uplift and expansion Throughout this journey King makes no claims of personal perfection Though an animal expert she is just like the rest of us on a journey still learning each day how to be better and do better for animals But as Animals Best Friends makes clear challenging choices can bring deep rewards By turning compassion into action on behalf of animals we not only improve animals lives we also immeasurably enrich our own
