

The Click moment

As the lights went down and the runway illuminated there was a silent yet electric atmosphere in the Raphael Gallery at the V&A where the 'Kulture2Couture' fashion show was about to begin. My eager anticipation was finally relieved when a burst of energetic music was injected into the gallery and I was overcome by an immense sense of excitement as I was about to witness my first ever fashion show and find a powerful inspiration that would lead me to pursue a career in the fashion industry.

Through this experience I became aware that the fashion industry is often hidden behind a glamorous facade of beautiful models and renowned designers and that there is some ambiguity about the fashion business amongst much of the public today. It is this very concept that has prompted me to view fashion in an objective manner, inspiring me to get to know the fashion business in its complexity and ultimately take a look at fashion from the inside out.
