Beauty And Tranquility:

Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin, 2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics including his theory of values concept of aesthetic experience and doctrine of beauty along with his philosophy of art literature and poetry Moreover it establishes an east west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead's process aesthetics can be clarified by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty As this east west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead's process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty However the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead's aesthetic categories including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of yūgen and aware It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religious aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana

Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme, 2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross
