Becoming National A Reader:

Becoming National Geoff Eley, Ronald Grigor Suny, 1996 In Becoming National Geoff Eley and Ronald Grigor Suny two of the foremost authorities on nationalism acknowledge these changes by combining a diverse selection of readings with a unifying introduction and instructive headnotes that move the discussion of nationalism onto a new and contemporary level Each group of readings is introduced by a brief historical essay and the readings are fully annotated Emphasizing the recent intellectual advances and influential ideas of Miroslav Hroch Benedict Anderson Paul Gilroy Stuart Hall Lauren Berlant and a host of others this book underscores the nineteenth and twentieth century nationalist theories to show not only where scholars of nationalism have been but where they are going

Imagining Nations Geoffrey Cubitt, 1998 Revisiting divisions of labour is a reflection on the making of a modern sociological classic text and its enduring influence on the discipline and beyond Ray Pahl's 1984 book is distinctive in the sustained impact it has had on how sociologists think about research and report on the changing nature of work and domestic life In this timely revisiting of a landmark project excerpts from the original are interspersed with contributions from leading researchers reflecting on the book and its effects in the ensuing three decades The book will be of interest to researchers students and lecturers in sociology and related disciplines

Creating Spaniards Sandie Eleanor Holguin, 2002 Creating Spaniards is a cultural and intellectual history that explains the intersection of politics and culture and the formation of a national identity during Spain's Second Republic and Civil War It counters recent scholarship claiming that leaders of the Second Republic had no programs for inventing traditions to encourage a Spanish national identity Focusing on the Second Republic 1931-1936 Sandie Holguin illustrates how various intellectuals and politicians of the Republican Socialist coalition used theater literature and film to aid the construction of a unified Spanish culture and history She uses memoirs journals newspapers parliamentary debates and archival sources in her examination of the impact that cultural reforms had on the transformation of one of Europe's oldest states

The Future of Class in History Geoff Eley, Keith Nield, 2007 In the struggle between social and cultural thinking the refusal to choose sides can be a radical and vital move

Creating the National Mosaic Miriam Verena Richter, 2011 Preliminary Material National Identity Formation The Canadian Situation Canadian Cultural Policy with Regard to Children's Culture and Literature The Immigrant Experience as Depicted in Anglo Canadian Youth Fiction 1950-1994 The Development of Canadian Multicultural Children's Literature Conclusion and Outlook for the Future Bibliography Index

The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society

Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass,2013-03-22 For the city's first two hundred years the story told at Washington DC's symbolic center the National Mall was about triumphant American leaders Since 1982 when the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated the narrative has shifted to emphasize the memory of American wars In the last thirty years five significant war memorials have been built on or very nearly on the Mall The Vietnam Veterans Memorial the Korean War Veterans Memorial the Women in Military Service for America Memorial The National Japanese American Memorial to Patriotism During WWII and the National World War II Memorial have not only transformed the physical space of the Mall but have also dramatically rewritten ideas about U S nationalism expressed there In Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass examines this war memorial boom the debates about war and race and gender and patriotism that shaped the memorials and the new narratives about the nature of American citizenship that they spawned Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall explores the meanings we have made in exchange for the lives of our soldiers and asks if we have made good on our enormous responsibility to them

The Politics of National Celebrations in the Arab Middle East Elie Podeh,2011-06-30 The first systematic study of the role of celebrations and public holidays in the Arab Middle East

Ukrainian Women Writers and the National Imaginary Oleksandra Wallo,2019-11-20 Since the collapse of the Soviet Union the Ukrainian literary world has not only experienced a true blossoming of women's prose but has also witnessed a number of female authors assume the roles of literary trendsetters and authoritative critics of their culture In this first in depth study of how Ukrainian women's prose writing was able to re emerge so powerfully after being marginalized in the Soviet era Oleksandra Wallo examines the writings and literary careers of leading contemporary Ukrainian women authors such as Oksana Zabuzhko Ievheniia Kononenko and Maria Matios Her study shows how these women reshaped literary culture with their contributions to the development of the Ukrainian national imaginary in the wake of the Soviet state's disintegration The interjection of women's voices and perspectives into the narratives about the nation has often permitted these writers to highlight the diversity of the national picture and the complexity of the national story Utilizing insights from postcolonial and nationalism studies Wallo's book theorizes the interdependence between the national imaginary and narrative plots and scrutinizes how prominent Ukrainian women authors experimented with literary form in order to rewrite the story of women and nationhood

National Identity and the Varieties of Capitalism John L.

Campbell,John A. Hall,Ove Kaj Pedersen,2006 Annotation Denmark has out performed most other advanced capitalist countries since the mid 1980s Contributors to National Identity and the Varieties of Capitalism draw from the literature on capitalism and small states and corporatism to explore why this is the case They find that Danish political and economic institutions facilitate bargaining and consensus building in ways that have enabled the state businesses and labour unions to adapt to the challenges of globalization Moreover by virtue of its small size homogeneous population and response to a variety of international challenges both economic and geopolitical Denmark has developed a strong national identity that further bolsters consensus building The result has been an adaptable and flourishing national political economy
