The Best of Us Joyce Maynard, 2018-09-11 The San Francisco Chronicle's Best of the Year List Indie Next Pick For Reading Groups From New York Times bestselling author Joyce Maynard a memoir about discovering strength in the midst of great loss heart wrenching inspiring full of joy and tears and life Anne Lamott In 2011 when she was in her late fifties beloved author and journalist Joyce Maynard met the first true partner she had ever known Jim wore a rakish hat over a good head of hair he asked real questions and gave real answers he loved to see Joyce shine both in and out of the spotlight and he didn't mind the mess she made in the kitchen He was not the husband Joyce imagined but he quickly became the partner she had always dreamed of Before they met both had believed they were done with marriage and even after they married Joyce resolved that no one could alter her course of determined independence Then just after their one year wedding anniversary her new husband was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer During the nineteen months that followed as they battled his illness together she discovered for the first time what it really meant to be a couple to be a true partner and to have one This is their story Charting the course through their whirlwind romance a marriage cut short by tragedy and Joyce's return to singleness on new terms The Best of Us is a heart wrenching ultimately life affirming reflection on coming to understand true love through the experience of great loss

The Recovering Leslie Jamison, 2018-04-03 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Empathy Exams comes this transformative work showing that sometimes the recovery is more gripping than the addiction With its deeply personal and seamless blend of memoir cultural history literary criticism and reportage The Recovering turns our understanding of the traditional addiction narrative on its head demonstrating that the story of recovery can be every bit as electrifying as the train wreck itself Leslie Jamison deftly excavates the stories we tell about addiction both her own and others and examines what we want these stories to do and what happens when they fail us All the while she offers a fascinating look at the larger history of the recovery movement and at the complicated bearing that race and class have on our understanding of who is criminal and who is ill At the heart of the book is Jamison's ongoing conversation with literary and artistic geniuses whose lives and works were shaped by alcoholism and substance dependence including John Berryman Jean Rhys Billie Holiday Raymond Carver Denis Johnson and David Foster Wallace as well as brilliant lesser known figures such as George Cain lost to obscurity but newly illuminated here Through its unvarnished relation of Jamison's own ordeals The Recovering also becomes a book about a different kind of dependency the way our desires can make us all as she puts it broken spigots of need It's about the particular loneliness of the human experience the craving for love that both devours us and shapes who we are For her striking language and piercing observations Jamison has been compared to such iconic writers as Joan Didion and Susan Sontag yet her utterly singular voice also offers something new With enormous empathy and wisdom Jamison has given us nothing less than the story of addiction and recovery in America writ large a definitive and revelatory account that will resonate for years to come

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver's poems making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver's poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine The Collected Poems and Selected Prose Stanley Burnshaw, 2010-01-01 Stanley Burnshaw began to publish poems in the 1920s and founded his own verse journal in 1925 After serving as coeditor and drama critic of the New Masses weekly 1934-1936 he entered book publishing directing the Dryden Press until 1958 when he joined Henry Holt The first of his nineteen earlier works Andr Spire and His Poetry appeared in 1934 and the last in 1990 A Stanley Burnshaw Reader with an introduction by Denis Donoghue The present volume the definitive Burnshaw collection offers all the poems he wishes to preserve and a full representation of his prose including My Friend My Father in its entirety The Collected Poems and Selected Prose is vital reading for anyone wishing to be fully acquainted with the man whom Karl Shapiro called one of the best respected men of letters of our time The New Anthology of American Poetry Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, Thomas Travisano, 2012-04-15 Steven Gould Axelrod Camille Roman and Thomas Travisano continue the standard of excellence set in Volumes I and II of this extraordinary anthology Volume III provides the most compelling and wide ranging selection available of American poetry from 1950 to the present Its contents are just as diverse and multifaceted as America itself and invite readers to explore the world of poetry in the larger historical context of American culture Nearly three hundred poems allow readers to explore canonical works by such poets as Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath as well as song lyrics from such popular musicians as Bob Dylan and Queen Latifah Because contemporary American culture transcends the borders of the continental United States the anthology also includes numerous transnational poets from Julia de Burgos to Derek Walcott Whether they are the works of oblique avant gardists like John Ashbery or direct populist poets like Allen Ginsberg all of the selections are accompanied by extensive introductions and footnotes making the great poetry of the period fully accessible to readers for the first time
