Japanese Management in the Low Growth Era Daniel Dirks, Jean-Francois Huchet, Thierry Ribault, 2012-12-06 Japanese firms are in the midst of the most protracted economic crisis in their post war history The end of the bubble economy has led to a long era of low growth This change in the general business environment has profound consequences for the management and the organization of corporate Japan as well as for the theory of the Japanese firm The contributions to this book cover a broad range of subjects from the strategies and organizational structures to the management of human resources and innovation processes in the 1990s These changes are systematically commented on by field specialists from abroad especially Europe relating the situation in Japan to comparable developments in other countries

Peace and Security in Northeast Asia Peter Hayes, Young Whan Kihl, 2016-09-16 This work provides an analysis of North Korea's nuclear controversy from a variety of perspectives including nuclear reactor technology and technology transfer economic sanctions and incentives confidence building measures environmental challenges and the views of Korea and the major powers

Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples

A World of Regions Peter J. Katzenstein, 2015-11-16 Observing the dramatic shift in world politics since the end of the Cold War Peter J Katzenstein argues that regions have become critical to contemporary world politics This view is in stark contrast to those who focus on the purportedly stubborn persistence of the nation state or the inevitable march of globalization In detailed studies of technology and foreign investment domestic and international security and cultural diplomacy and popular culture Katzenstein examines the changing regional dynamics of Europe and Asia which are linked to the United States through Germany and Japan Regions Katzenstein contends are interacting closely with an American imperium that combines territorial and non territorial powers Katzenstein argues that globalization and internationalization create open or porous regions Regions may provide solutions to the contradictions between states and markets security and insecurity nationalism and cosmopolitanism Embedded in the American imperium

regions are now central to world politics
