Rivera, 1991 The 1980 Cuban influx represented a unique challenge to federal refugee policy mechanisms and to prevalent concepts of policy analysis and evaluation The persistence of unworkable policies across two Presidential administrations suggests that organizational structural and decisional rather than personality or motivational factors were principally determinative of policy failure This work suggests elements of a causal theory based on these factors and a mode of normative evaluation based on mixed analytical strategies that attend to both decisional process and institutional structure Immigration and the Politics of American Sovereignty, 1890 to 1990 Cheryl Lynne Shanks, 1994 Sudanese Refugees in the United States Martha Donkor, 2008 Oysters vary in taste and quality more than any other Louisiana seafood and that's why knowing how to choose the best oysters is so important Fisheries expert Jerald Horst and his wife Glenda who grew up cooking in a commercial fishing family carefully guide readers along the path to successful meals beginning with a comprehensive review of oyster biology and the oyster industry From inspecting shells and water quality to checking the appropriate weight and tags this oyster encyclopedia includes detailed information no seafood lover could resist Photographs accompany invaluable instructions on shucking and freezing the delicacy without damaging its sensitive soft tissue Somewhere between choosing ingredients and understanding the oyster life cycle comes the best part more than seventy-five delectable recipes have been added to this collection including Drago's Charbroiled Oysters Angels on Horseback and Dudley's Deadly Fried Ones all of which prove well worth the shucking time ABOUT THE AUTHORS Jerald Horst is a retired fisheries expert who taught fisheries science at Louisiana State University for more than thirty years He is a member of the Louisiana Chapter of the American Fisheries Society and frequently writes for Louisiana Sportsman magazine He is the coauthor of Angler's Guide to Fishes of the Gulf of Mexico available from Pelican Glenda Horst was born and raised on Bayou Sorrell Louisiana a small commercial fishing community on the edge of the Atchafalaya Basin The daughter of a commercial fisherman she learned the basics of Cajun cooking from her mother The
