Angestiftet, Partei zu ergreifen Günter Grass, 1994 Constructing Authorship in the Work of Günter Grass Rebecca Braun, 2008-06-26 This book traces a longstanding concern with issues of authorship throughout the work of Günter Grass Germany's best known contemporary writer and public intellectual Through detailed close readings of all of his major literary works from 1970 onwards and careful analysis of his political writings from 1965 to 2005 it argues that Grass's tendency to insert clearly recognisable self images into his literary texts represents a coherent and calculated reaction to his constant exposure in the media led public sphere It underlines the degree of play which has characterised Grass's relationship to this sphere and himself as part of it and explains how a concern with the very concept of authorship has conditioned the way his work as a whole has developed on both thematic and structural levels The major achievement of this study is to develop a new interpretative paradigm for Grass's work It explains for the first time how his playful tendency to manipulate his own authorial image conditions all levels of his texts and is equally manifest in literary and political realms Distorted Reflections Stuart Taberner, 2023-11-27 This volume presents a new approach to the political engagement of three major West German authors Uwe Johnson Günter Grass and Martin Walser Whereas analysis of intellectuals participation in the political upheaval of the late 1960s has tended to focus on speeches written in response to contemporary events this book examines works of fiction for the way in which authors reflected upon their engagement in a more contemplative medium Examination of these literary reflections reveals a mismatch between writers confidence as public intellectuals and their private anxiety Beginning with a survey of intellectual engagement until the late 1960s the present volume moves onto a theoretical discussion of the legitimacy of authors public interventions Three chapters are devoted to the fiction of Uwe Johnson Günter Grass and Martin Walser Uwe Johnson's fiction embodies retreat an acknowledgment of political impotence Günter Grass's novels present the failings of the engaged intellectual as exemplary to an audience which is expected to learn from this inadequacy Finally Martin Walser's intellectual characters stylise private weakness to appeal to a middle brow audience titillated by the public figure's confession of impotence In Walser's work political engagement degenerates into pure form into a Camp gesture of authors obsession with their private selves Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 Imperial Fictions Todd Kontje, 2018-04-25 Rethinks German literature by challenging the notion that national literature is the narrative of a spiritually united people Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias
