Angels And The Perverts:

The Angel and the Perverts Lucie Delarue-Mardrus, 1995-07 Set in the lesbian and gay circles of Paris in the 1920s this is the story of a hermaphrodite born to upper class parents in Normandy and ignorant of his/her physical difference The Angel and the Perverts Lucie Delarue-Mardrus, 1995-07-01 Set in the lesbian and gay circles of Paris in the 1920s The Angel and the Perverts tells the story of a hermaphrodite born to upper class parents in Normandy and ignorant of his/her physical difference As an adult s/he lives a double life as Marion Mario passing undetected as a lesbian in the literary salons of the times and as a gay man in the cocaine dens made famous by Colette Delarue Mardrus's novel belongs to a category of literature written between the turn of the century and approximately 1930 which depicted lesbians as members of a third sex The hermaphrodite became the visual representation of the ways in which lesbians were different from their heterosexual sisters and Rene Vivien Natalie Clifford Barney Rachilde and Colette among others shared Delarue Mardrus's fascination with the topic This is the first translation into English of The Angel and the Perverts In an astute introduction Anna Livia rereads Lucie Delarue Mardrus as a prolific and significant writer despite the fact that previous scholars viewed her primarily as the wife of the scholar and translator Joseph Charles Mardrus Livia also places Delarue Mardrus's life in a lesbian context for the first time and decodes this delightful novel so that readers will feel quite at home in Mario Marion's unusual world which runs the gamut from Auguste Rodin to Jean Cocteau and Sarah Bernhardt Lessons for Life Based on the Lives of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph Peter Elwood, 2019-03-22 In the 1970s and 1980s my wife and I were privileged together with a group of friends John and Sally Dennis and Freda Dave Richard and Gill to lead a series of intensive Bible studies with a changing group of undergraduate students each Sunday evening during university term In preparation for a study we would meet one evening during the week to discuss the passage of scripture proposed for the following Sunday and we would share together what we had each learned from commentaries and other sources On Sundays one of us would present the passage for perhaps an hour and after coffee and biscuits we would have forty minutes or more of open discussion Those were life changing evenings for me I developed a deep respect for scripture a longing to live it out and a desire to share it The studies came to an end smoothly and happily when John and Sally moved to Oxford This prompted Margaret and me to leave our comfortable downtown church in Cardiff and offer to throw our lot in with a struggling small Baptist church in one of the Welsh valley towns I offered to take a lead in Bible teaching within the church and Margaret became involved in time off a group for older women and in a number of other community based initiatives After a few months I was invited to accept leadership of the church as a layperson an untrained Baptist pastor After much thought and prayer I accepted and so commenced the happiest period of my married life and the busiest period for the both of us Fourteen years later the church moved to larger premises led by a gifted local lad with reference to whom I often said I lectured the church Wayne communicates to the people For each service in the church I typed out an A4 essay on the Bible passage that had been preached and at the end of the service I stood at the door said farewell to each person and gave each of them a copy of my essay In this way I hoped that I might increase both the respect for scripture throughout the church and perhaps reinforce the memory of each passage presented in the sermon When Margaret and I resigned from leadership of the church I rewrote a series of twenty eight sermons I had given in the church I had these printed and bound together into a booklet and I gave a copy as a farewell gift to every person who attended the church These essays have been further edited and are now published under the title A Medical Scientist Examines the Life of Jesus The present volume is based on another series of sermons I had given in the church These too have been edited and rewritten as a series of essays under the title Lessons for Life Based on the Lives of Abraham Isaac Jacob and Joseph
