Bright Moon Perching Bird:

Bright Moon, Perching Bird Bai Li, 1987 The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country's oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition Drawing from some 250 volumes editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators no other program has had such a fundamental impact Works by the eighty six poets included here both document and celebrate that contribution The Selected Poems of Li Po David Hinton, Bai Li, Li Po, 2013-12-24 Li Po A.D. 701-762 lived in Tang Dynasty China but his influence has spanned the centuries the pure lyricism of his poems has awed readers in China and Japan for over a millennium and through Ezra Pound's translations Li Po became central to the modernist revolution in the West His work is suffused with Taoism and Chan Zen Buddhism but these seem not so much spiritual influences as the inborn form of his life There is a set phrase in Chinese referring to the phenomenon of Li Po Winds of the immortals bones of the Tao He moved through this world with an unearthly freedom from attachment and at the same time belonged profoundly to the earth and its process of change However ethereal in spirit his poems remain grounded in the everyday experience we all share He wrote 1200 years ago half a world away but in his poems we see our world transformed Legendary friends in eighth century Tang China Li Po and Tu Fu are traditionally celebrated as the two greatest poets in the Chinese canon David Hinton's translation of Li Po's poems is no less an achievement than his critically acclaimed The Selected Poems of Tu Fu also published by New Directions By reflecting the ambiguity and density of the original Hinton continues to create compelling English poems that alter our conception of Chinese poetry Just This Is It Taigen Dan Leighton, 2015-04-07 Teachings on the practice of things as they are through commentaries on a legendary Chinese Zen figure The joy of suchness the ultimate and true nature inherent in all appearance shines through the teachings attributed to Dongshan Liangjie 807-869 the legendary founder of the Caodong lineage of Chan Buddhism the predecessor of Soto Zen Taigen Dan Leighton looks at the teachings attributed to Dongshan in his Recorded Sayings and in the numerous koans in which he is featured as a character to reveal the subtlety and depth of the teaching on the nature of reality that Dongshan expresses Included are an analysis of the well known teaching poem Jewel Mirror Samadhi and of the understanding of particular and universal expressed in the teaching of the Five Degrees The teachings embedded in the stories about Dongshan provide a rich legacy that has been sustained in practice traditions says Taigen Dongshan's subtle teachings about engagement with suchness remain vital today for Zen people and are available for all those who wish to find meaning amid the challenges to modern lives

Selected Poems of Du Fu, 2003-03-17 Du Fu 712-770 has been called China's greatest poet and some call him the greatest non-epic, non-dramatic poet whose writings survive in any language. Du Fu excelled in a great variety of poetic forms showing a richness of language ranging from elegant to colloquial from allusive to direct. His impressive breadth of subject matter includes intimate personal detail as well as a great deal of historical information which earned him the epithet poet-historian. Some 1,400 of Du Fu's poems survive today; his fame resting on about one hundred that have been widely admired over the centuries. Preeminent translator Burton Watson has selected 127 poems including those for which Du Fu is best remembered and lesser-known works.

The Selected Poems of Tu Fu Tu Fu, David Hinton, 1989-06-17 For over a millennium Chinese literati have almost unanimously considered Tu Fu 712-770 A.D. to be their greatest poet. Tu Fu radically altered poetry as he found it in the High Tang period. In addition to making formal innovations in language and structure, he extended the range of acceptable subject matter to include all aspects of public and private experience, thus becoming, in the words of translator David Hinton, the first complete poetic sensibility in Chinese literature. This edition of The Selected Poems of Tu Fu is the only comprehensive selection of the poet's work currently available in English. While retaining a scholar's devotion to the text, Hinton has attempted to recreate Tu Fu's poems as new systems of uncertainty. By reflecting all the ambiguity and density of the originals, he has created compelling English poems that significantly alter our conception of Chinese poetry. Included with the poems are the translator's introduction and translation principles as well as a biography of Tu Fu; together these provide a fascinating portrait of a uniquely sensitive spirit during one of the most tumultuous periods in Chinese history.

Sunflower Splendor Wuji Liu, Irving Yucheng Lo, 1975 A comprehensive anthology of Chinese poetry from the 12th century B.C. to the present. This magnificent collection has the effect of a complete library rather than of an anthology of poetry. A lyric quality comes through into our own language. Every page is alive with striking and wonderful things immediately accessible. Publishers Weekly: Sunflower Splendor is the largest and on the whole best anthology of translated Chinese poems to have appeared in a Western language. The New York Times Book Review: This remarkably fine anthology should remain standard for a long time. Library Journal: excellent translations by diverse hands. Open to any page and listen to the still sad music. Washington Post Bookworld:

The Selected Poems of Tu Fu Du Fu, 1989 For over a millennium Chinese literati have almost unanimously considered Tu Fu 712-770 A.D. to be their greatest poet.
