Bright Boots Fred Gresswell, 1958 Bright Boots, Etc. [An Autobiography and Anthology. With Plates, Including Portraits.] Fred Gresswell, 1956 Bright Boots Fred Gresswell, 1956 The English Pig Robert Malcolmson, Stephanos Mastoris, 1998-01-01 The English Pig is an account of pigs and pig keeping from the sixteenth century to modern times concentrating on the domestic cottage pig rather than commercial farming In Victorian England the pig was an integral part of village life both visible and essential Living in close proximity to its owners fed on scraps and the subject of perennial interest the pig when dead provided the means to repay social and monetary debts as well as excellent meat While the words associated with the pig such as hoggish swine and pigsty and phrases like greedy as a pig associate the pig with greed and dirt this book shows the pig's virtues intelligence and distinctive character It is a portrait of one of the most recognisable but least known of farm animals seen here also in many photographs and other representations The pig has a modest place in literature from Fielding's pig keeping Parson Trulliber to Hardy's Jude the Obscure and to Flora Thompson's Lark Rise to Candleford In modern times while vanishing from the sight of most people it has been sentimentalised in children's stories and commercialised in advertisements The Intellectual Life of the British Working Classes Jonathan Rose, 2021-06-08 This is a landmark intellectual history of Britain's working classes from the preindustrial era to the twentieth century Drawing on workers' memoirs social surveys library registers and more Jonathan Rose uncovers which books people read how they educated themselves and what they knew A new preface addresses the continuing relevance of the book amidst the upheavals of the present day An astonishing book Ian Sansom The Guardian A passionate work of history Rose has written a work of staggering ambition Daniel Akst Wall Street Journal Winner of the SHARP Book History Prize the American Philosophical Society's Jacques Barzun Prize and the British Council Prize co-winner of the Longman History Today Book of the Year Prize for 2001 named one of the finest books of 2001 by The Economist Men and Menswear Laura Ugolini, 2017-03-02 Despite increasing academic interest in both the study of masculinity and the history of consumption there are still few published studies that bring together both concerns By investigating the changing nature of the retailing of menswear this book illuminates wider aspects of masculine identity as well as patterns of male consumption between the years 1880 and 1939 While previous historical studies of masculinity have focused overwhelmingly on the moral spiritual and physical characteristics associated with notions of manliness this book considers the relationship between men and activities which were widely considered to be at least potentially unmanly selling as well as buying clothes thus shedding new light on men's lives and identities in this period Rural Women Workers in Nineteenth-century England Nicola Verdon, 2002 The range of women's work and its contribution to the family economy studied here for the first time Despite the growth of women's history and rural social history in the past thirty years the work performed by women who lived in the nineteenth century English countryside is still an under-researched issue Verdon directly addresses this gap in the historiography

placing the rural female labourer centre stage for the first time The involvement of women in the rural labour market as farm servants as day labourers in agriculture and as domestic workers are all examined using a wide range of printed and unpublished sources from across England The roles village women performed in the informal rural economy household labour gathering resources and exploiting systems of barter and exchange are also assessed Changes in women s economic opportunities are explored alongside the implications of region age marital status number of children in the family and local custom women s economic contribution to the rural labouring household is established as a critical part of family subsistence despite criticism of such work and the rise in male wages after 1850 NICOLA VERDON is a Research Fellow in the Rural History Centre University of Reading
