The Illustrated History of British Columbia Terry Reksten, 2005-04 British Columbia Geoffrey Molyneux, 1992
This history of British Columbia celebrates an enigmatic and beautiful frontier At the same time author Geoffrey Molyneux delivers barbs about the corrupt politicians and bizarre development plans that have threatened to compromise this majestic region With over 100 photographs and excerpts from writers Douglas Coupland and Terry Glavin this book provides a short but engaging history of Canada's westernmost province Illustrated History of the State of Washington ... Harvey K. Hines, 1894 Far West Daniel Francis, 2006 British Columbia's colourful story has been told many times but until now no one has attempted to relate the chronicle specifically for young readers From the gold rush to the Gumboot Navy and from brideships to W A C Bennett BC history comes alive in this highly illustrated and vivid account by award winning writer and historian Daniel Francis Starting with the story of BC's aboriginal people and their lives prior to the arrival of the Europeans Far West recounts first contact with early explorers such as Captain James Cook and Captain George Vancouver and the changes the fur trade brought to the New World Francis then describes how BC was born starting with the gold rush and Confederation eras going through to modern times and speculating on BC's future On the way we meet interesting characters from BC's history people such as Frances Barkley the first European woman to visit British Columbia in 1787 Joe Capilano who travelled to London England in 1906 to explain to the British king how BC's aboriginal people were displaced by white settlers and Rosemary Brown a Vancouver social worker who was the first black woman elected to political office in Canada in 1972 Quotes from BC people past and present and anecdotal sidebars containing little known BC facts spice up the text Geared toward readers aged nine and up and richly illustrated with archival photographs colourful paintings maps and original illustrations Far West is a must have for every BC family An Illustrated History of Walla Walla County, State of Washington William Denison Lyman, 1901 An Illustrated History of Klickitat, Yakima and Kittitas Counties, 1904
Trucking in British Columbia Daniel Francis, 2012 Accompanied by hundreds of previously unpublished archival and contemporary photographs award winning historian Daniel Francis delivers a fascinating account of the first hundred years of trucking in BC Beginning in Vancouver with James Starks first delivery van in 1907 motorized transport exploded in the province soon traversing every dirt track hauling logs on temporary plank roads and leading to a frenzy of experimentation and innovation from the failed Renard Road Train and early battery operated vehicles to some truly impressive purpose built trucks many of them manufactured in BC An Illustrated History of the State of Washington Harvey Kimball Hines, 1893
An Illustrated History of the State of Montana Joaquin Miller, 1894 Becoming British Columbia John Belshaw, 2009-07-01 Becoming British Columbia is the first comprehensive demographic history of British Columbia Investigating critical moments in the demographic record and linking demographic patterns to larger social and political questions it shows how biology politics and history conspired with sex death and migration to create a particular kind of society John Belshaw overturns the widespread tendency to associate population growth with progress He reveals that the province has a long tradition of thinking and acting vigorously in ways meant to control and shape biological communities of humans and suggests that imperialism race class and gender have historically situated population issues at the centre of public consciousness in British Columbia
