British Policy And The Refugees 1933 1941:

British Policy and the Refugees, 1933-1941 Yvonne Kapp, 1997 British Internment and the Internment of Britons Gilly Carr, Rachel Pistol, 2023-05-18 This edited volume presents a cutting edge discussion and analysis of civilian enemy alien internment in Britain the internment of British civilians on the continent and civilian internment camps run by the British within the wider British Empire The book brings together a range of interdisciplinary specialists including archaeologists historians and heritage practitioners to give a full overview of the topic of internment internationally Very little has been written about the experience of interned Britons on the continent during the Second World War compared with continentals interned in Britain Even fewer accounts exist of the regime in British Dominions where British guards presided over the camps This collection is the first to bring together the British experiences as the common theme in one study The new research presented here also offers updated statistics for the camps whilst considering the period between 1945 to the present day through related site heritage issues Refugees, Citizenship and Social Policy in Europe A. Bloch, C. Levy, 1999-04-30 Recently global and European migration in the post Cold War world have received much attention This edited collection is a comprehensive up to date account of the social policies of European welfare states towards refugees and asylum seekers It also examines the contested boundaries between refugees and asylum seekers and citizenship within European nation states and the European Union Refugees From Nazi Germany and the Liberal European States Frank Caestecker, Bob Moore, 2010-01-01 The exodus of refugees from Nazi Germany in the 1930s has received far more attention from historians social scientists and demographers than many other migrations and persecutions in Europe However as a result of the overwhelming attention that has been given to the Holocaust within the historiography of Europe and the Second World War the issues surrounding the flight of people from Nazi Germany prior to 1939 have been seen as Vorgeschichte pre history implicating the Western European democracies and the United States as bystanders only in the impending tragedy Based on a comparative analysis of national case studies this volume deals with the challenges that the pre 1939 movement of refugees from Germany and Austria posed to the immigration controls in the countries of interwar Europe Although Europe takes center stage this volume also looks beyond to the Middle East Asia and America This global perspective outlines the constraints under which European policy makers and the refugees had to make decisions By also considering the social implications of policies that became increasingly protectionist and nationalistic and bringing into focus the similarities and differences between European liberal states in admitting the refugees it offers an important contribution to the wider field of research on political and administrative practices Walter Kohn: From Kindertransport And Internment To Dft And The Nobel Prize David C Clary, 2024-10-02 Walter Kohn 1998 Nobel Laureate in Chemistry and discoverer of the Density Functional Theory DFT died in 2016 at the grand age of 93 This book is the first ever biography of Kohn who led a remarkable life and scientific career not least the fact that his DFT theory has emerged as the underlying computational method for molecular simulation used throughout the physical and life sciences Taking us on a compelling journey Sir David Clary traces Kohn's early life in Vienna and his dramatic escape from the Nazis on the Kindertransport to England in 1939 followed by Kohn's internment as an enemy alien and his transportation to Canada in 1940 His subsequent scientific career is discussed in detail including his remarkable sabbatical in France when he discovered DFT and his enduring efforts on peace initiatives and reduction of nuclear proliferation An extraordinary story of a theoretical physicist winning the Nobel Prize in Chemistry Walter Kohn is a sparkling chronicle of one of the great scientists of the 20th century who forever changed the way contemporary science is done Visceral Cosmopolitanism Mica Nava,2007-10-15

Renowned cultural theorist Mica Nava makes a significant contribution to the study of cosmopolitanism by exploring everyday English urban cosmopolitanism and foregrounding the gendered imaginative and empathetic aspects of positive engagement with cultural and racial difference By looking at a wide range of texts events and biographical narratives she traces cosmopolitanism from its marginal status at the beginning of the twentieth century to its relative normalisation by century's end Case studies include the promotion of cosmopolitanism by Selfridges before the first world war relationships between white English women and other men Jews and black GIs during the 1930s and 1940s literary cinematic and social science representations of migrants in postcolonial Britain and Diana and Dodi's interracial romance in the 1990s In the final chapter the author draws on her own complex family history to illustrate the contemporary cosmopolitan London experience Scholars have tended to ignore the oppositional cultures of antiracism and social inclusivity This groundbreaking study redresses this imbalance and offers a sophisticated account of the uneven history of vernacular cosmopolitanism Bystanders to the Holocaust David Cesarani,Paul A. Levine,2014-06-03 Using accessible archival sources a team of historians reveal how much the USA Britain Switzerland and Sweden knew about the Nazi attempt to murder all the Jews of Europe during World War II
