Aids Intervening With Hidden Grievors:

AIDS Barbara O. Dane, Samuel O. Miller, 1992-12-04 AIDS and the deaths resulting from the disease impact increasingly large numbers of individuals and families The survivors often mourn confused and alone For the first time this authoritative sensitive work offers not only necessary recognition of the needs of the bereaved but also affords clinicians and counselors well founded recommendations for appropriate interventions The stigma so often associated with AIDS and the obstacles and reactions it occasions for survivors is thoroughly examined and methods of responding are given Dane and Miller in describing theories of grief and bereavement and in offering a remarkably clear treatment of the AIDS crisis and its import establish a context for discussing the reactions and intervention needs of subsets of survivors children adolescents women families lovers and others Short case studies vividly illustrate the grief feelings of guilt sense of loss and other reactions requiring understanding and counsel The examples allow the authors to explore the important distinctions and principles essential to caring constructive support

AIDS and the New Orphans Barbara O. Dane, Carol Levine, 1994-10-21 By the year 2000 as many as 125 000 children under the age of 18 in the U S will have been orphaned by AIDS Social services in major urban centers such as New York Miami Los Angeles and Washington will be further overwhelmed by these new clients and their unique problems In this book experts on AIDS bereavement and children draw together and analyze research and practice models that may be vital to individual and public policy solutions The first chapter sets the stage by examining how Western culture approaches death Issues of spirituality and children are discussed next and the following chapters deal with childhood bereavement among latency age children and adolescents The role of culture and ethnicity are examined in the Latino and Black communities Also the conflicts and problems that new guardians face as they attempt to build new and secure relationships with grieving youngsters are addressed The book ends with an examination of four projects that are reaching children and families and gives recommendations to practitioners This book is an invaluable examination of a problem of growing social concern for social medical and mental health professionals public policy analysts and the general public

Invisible Caregivers Daphne Joslin, 2002-02-28 An understudied aspect of the HIV AIDS epidemic is the creation of hundreds of thousands of grandparent headed households that have become home to children bereft of one or both of their parents Such skip generation parenting presents a host of challenges to the families involved and the social programs designed to assist them Despite this unprecedented caregiving responsibility older surrogate parents remain relatively invisible hidden in the shadows of HIV care and the demands of raising a child The primary goal of Invisible Caregivers is to generate support and guide program and policy initiatives designed to meet the needs of elder surrogates and their families Most social service programs are not able to identify the needs of older surrogates often because these surrogate parents in HIV infected families are reluctant to make their needs known for fear of social stigma or possible reductions of benefits Multiple systemic barriers to case management and other services also frustrate attempts to bring available resources to elder caregivers These barriers include professional ignorance or denial that HIV affects surrogates eligibility restrictions through CARE limited funding and age restriction on OAA and a fragmented health and human service system Because the issues facing elder caregivers are many and varied this collection covers a host of issues community health aging HIV services child welfare education public policy and mental health

Psychotherapy And AIDS Lucy A. Wicks, 2016-01-20 Psychological treatments seek to support changes in patients s lives Normally they get better and move on with their lives The time line is often different in dealing with the medically ill including those with HIV While making progress psychologically patients may become more physically dependent Divided into 3 parts this book presents information and clinical material in a range of topics to support psychologically informed treatment of individuals who are HIV positive Each chapter proposes techniques and methods to address different concerns commonly encountered with this population In addition case studies are provided throughout

Adolescent Encounters With Death, Bereavement, and Coping Charles Corr, David Balk, 2009-03-16 Capturing from the start that Childhood is and always has been a vulnerable time we have a rich in gathering of contributed pieces that bring us into the raw fragile arena of children traumatized by life events and behaviors Illness Crisis and Loss Balk and Corr again have edited a book that will set the direction of the field for yet another decade Caregivers can count on this book for insight and intervention From the Foreword by Kenneth J Doka PhD Professor The Graduate School The College of New Rochelle Author Counseling Individuals With Life Threatening Illness Over a decade has passed since the publication of Balk and Corr s groundbreaking Handbook of Adolescent Death and Bereavement This new book Adolescent Encounters With Death Bereavement and Coping analyzes the challenges faced by adolescents coping with death dying and bereavement and examines the new unique circumstances and advances that have transpired over the last decade These include Grief and coping with HIV AIDS Adolescents humor and death Technology and the Internet coping with loss in the digital world Bereavement over the deaths of celebrities The book also explores critical imaginative conceptual frameworks and models that have emerged on the scene including The dual process model for understanding loss Ideas about assumptive worlds Debates about the benefit and harm of grief counseling New research on recovery and resilience following bereavement Written from the interdisciplinary perspectives of expert sociologists psychologists educators social workers nurses and anthropologists this book offers a breadth and depth of insight into the complex nature of adolescent bereavement Nurses counselors social workers and educators will find this book to be an invaluable resource when they try to understand and help adolescents coping with death related issues

Invisible Children in the Society and Its Schools Sue Books, 2015-04-24 The authors in this book use the metaphors of invisibility and visibility to explore the social and school lives of many children and young people in North America whose complexity strengths and vulnerabilities are largely unseen in the society and its schools These invisible children are socially devalued in the sense that alleviating the difficult conditions of their lives is not a priority children who are subjected to derogatory stereotypes who are educationally neglected in schools that respond inadequately if at all to their needs and who receive relatively little attention from scholars in the field of education or writers in the popular press The chapter authors some of the most passionate and insightful scholars in the field of education today detail oversights and assaults visible and invisible but also affirm the capacity of many of these young people to survive flourish and often educate others despite the painful and even desperate circumstances of their lives By sharing their voices providing basic information about them and offering thoughtful analysis of their social situation this volume combines education and advocacy in an accessible volume responsive to some of the most pressing issues of our time Although their research methodologies differ all of the contributors aim to get the facts straight and to set them in a meaningful context New in the Third Edition Chapters retained from the previous edition have been thoroughly revised and updated and five totally new chapters have been added on the topics of young people pushed into the school to prison pipeline the environmental landscape of two out of school Mexican migrant teens in the rural Midwest the perceptions and practices in and outside schools that construct African American boys as school failures negative portrayals of blackness in the context of understanding the collateral damage of continued white privilege and working class pregnant and parenting teens efforts to create positive identities for themselves Of interest to a broad range of researchers students and practitioners across the field of education this compelling book is accessible to all readers It is particularly appropriate as a text for courses that address the social context of education cultural and political change and public policy including social foundations of education sociology of education multicultural education curriculum studies and educational policy

Working with Families in the Era of HIV/AIDS Willo Pequegnat, Jose Szapocznik, 2000-05-31 The purpose of this book is to encourage professional to become involved in family oriented services to prevent the spread of HIV and its consequences and to provide examples of strategies for mobilizing family resources in the prevention and adaptation to HIV and AIDS

Children and HIV/AIDS Gary Anderson, Constance Ryan, Susan Taylor-Brown, Myra White-Gray, 2017-11-30 In December 1982 the Centers for Disease Control received the first reports of cases of children with HIV AIDS Since that time the child welfare system as well as other human service organizations have been coping with and responding to the crises of children and families living with HIV AIDS including the considerable number of children affected by AIDS through the illness of their parents siblings or other family members This volume is intended as a resource for personnel within the child welfare field serving children and families whose lives are touched by HIV and AIDS The contributors add insight to and fuel the discussion of the fight against AIDS They provide tools to help better serve the children and adolescents that the current epidemic so tragically affects Chapters and contributors include Factors Associated with Parents Decision to Disclose Their HIV Diagnosis to Their Children by Lori S Wiener Haven B Battles and Nancy E Heilman Custody Planning with HIV Affected Families by Sally Mason Correlates and Distribution of HIV Risk Behaviors Among Homeless Youths in New York City by Michael C Clatts W Rees Davis J L Sotheran and Aylin Attillasoy and HIV

Prevention for Youths in Independent Living Programs by Wendy F Auslander Vered Slonim Nevo Diane Elze and Michael Sherraden Originally published as a special issue of Child Welfare this volume examines lessons learned from a variety of perspectives and settings and identifies a number of continuing challenges facing the field Children and HIV AIDS is an invaluable compendium that should be read by social workers and health specialists and all those affected by the epidemic
