Children Catherine Allerton,2016-05-19 Conducting ethnographic fieldwork with children presents anthropologists with particular challenges and limitations as well as rewards and insights Children Ethnographic Encounters presents ten vivid accounts of researchers experiences of working with children across a variety of cultural contexts Part of the Ethnographic Encounters series the book offers honest reflections on successes as well as failures and shows that in all cases even those that failed anthropologists can learn something about children s position in their social world Going beyond the usual focus on North America and Europe the text offers comparative insights into the nature of childhood in different societies The chapters provide first hand accounts of fieldwork with children in diverse geographical places such as Mexico the Ecuadorian Amazon Rwanda central India Thailand Malaysia and China The book provides hope encouragement and inspiration to anyone planning to undertake ethnographic fieldwork with children and provides important insights to students and researchers working in the growing field of anthropology of children and childhood in childhood studies and related fields

The Children of Chinatown Wendy Rouse,2009-10-01 Revealing the untold stories of a pioneer generation of young Chinese Americans this book places the children and families of early Chinatown in the middle of efforts to combat American policies of exclusion and segregation Wendy Jorae challenges long held notions of early Chinatown as a bachelor community by showing that families and particularly children played important roles in its daily life She explores the wide ranging images of Chinatown s youth created by competing interests with their own agendas from anti immigrant depictions of Chinese children as filthy and culturally inferior to exotic and Orientalized images that catered to the tourist s ideal of Chinatown All of these representations Jorae notes tended to further isolate Chinatown at a time when American born Chinese children were attempting to define themselves as Chinese American Facing barriers of immigration exclusion cultural dislocation child labor segregated schooling crime and violence Chinese American children attempted to build a world for themselves on the margins of two cultures Their story is part of the larger American story of the struggle to overcome racism and realize the ideal of equality
