British Columbia Reconsidered Essays On Women:

British Columbia Reconsidered University of British Columbia. Centre for Research in Women's Studies and Gender Relations, 1992 This dynamic multi disciplinary collection moves women from the periphery to the forefront of contemporary scholarship about the province of B C The Business of Women Melanie Buddle, 2011-01-01 In the past Western women inhabited a conceptual space divorced from the world of business Historians have consequently tended to overlook the experiences of women entrepreneurs Who were these women and how were they able to justify their work outside the home The Business of Women explores the world of women entrepreneurs in early twentieth century British Columbia Contrary to expectation the typical businesswoman was not unmarried or particularly rebellious but a woman who reconciled entrepreneurship with her femininity and her identity as a wife mother or widow The entrepreneurial woman was the product of a frontier ethos in British Columbia that translated into higher rates of marriage for women and more married women working outside the home than in any other province in Canada Like men they worked to support their families Women's Changing Landscapes Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, 1999 Grandmothers mothers and daughters speak to us of their personal lives their triumphs and achievements Encompassing three generations their histories give us a sampling of the rich diversity of women's life experiences in British Columbia Alberta Manitoba and Nunavut Ontario Quebec and Nova Scotia Introductions contextualize the stories and provide comprehensive overviews of the social economic political and feminist developments in the province or territory during the last century The Resettlement of British Columbia Cole Harris, 1997 Nine essays reflect on the strategies of colonialism in British Columbia during the first 150 years after the arrival of European settlers Peering through the dual lenses of post colonial theory and empirical data the author considers Native disease and depopulation the means by which fur traders consolidated their position in Native territories the introduction of British property law and the methods of surveillance and disciplinary power that accompanied it the progressive destruction of distance and the repossession of land and the cultural assumptions of missionaries and settlers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR From Slave Girls to Salvation Shelly D. Ikebuchi, 2015-11-10 From its origins as a project to rescue Chinese prostitutes and slave girls from a life of supposed depravity the Chinese Rescue Home became a feature of the moral and racial landscape of Victoria a place where the Methodist Women's Missionary Society attempted to reform Chinese and Japanese girls and women in part by teaching them domestic skills meant to ease their integration into Western society Between 1886 and 1923 over four hundred Chinese and Japanese women sheltered in the home Yet despite the significance of this iconic institution little has been written on its history From Slave Girls to Salvation draws on a rich collection of archival materials to uncover the organizational hierarchies as well as the religious and racial tropes which permeated the home In doing so it expands our understanding of the complex interplay of gender race and class in BC during this time period Militant Minority Benjamin Isitt, 2011-01-01 Militant Minority tells the compelling story of British Columbia workers who sustained a left tradition during the bleakest days of the Cold War Through their continuing activism on issues from the politics of timber licenses to global questions of war and peace these workers bridged the transition from an Old to a New Left In the late 1950s half of B C s workers belonged to unions but the promise of postwar collective bargaining spawned disillusionment tied to inflation and automation A new working class that was educated white collar and increasingly rebellious shifted the locus of activism from the Communist Party and Co operative Commonwealth Federation to the newly formed New Democratic Party which was elected in 1972 Grounded in archival research and oral history Militant Minority provides a valuable case study of one of the most organized and independent working classes in North America during a period of ideological tension and unprecedented material advance Changing Women, Changing History Diana Pederson,1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Finding a Way to the Heart Jarvis Brownlie,Valerie J. Korinek,2012-10-30 When Sylvia Van Kirk published her groundbreaking book Many Tender Ties in 1980 she revolutionized the historical understanding of the North American fur trade and introduced entirely new areas of inquiry in women s social and Aboriginal history Finding a Way to the Heart examines race gender identity and colonization from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth century and illustrates Van Kirk s extensive influence on a generation of feminist scholarship Women and Business since 1500 Béatrice Craig,2015-12-01 This volume surveys the role women have played in various types of business as owners co owners and decision making managers in European and North American societies since the sixteenth century Drawing on up to date scholarship it identifies the economic social legal and cultural factors that have facilitated or restricted women s participation in business It pays particular attention to the ways in which gender norms and their evolution shaped not only those women s experience of business but the ways they were perceived by contemporaries documented in sources and partly as a consequence viewed by historians A Female Economy Mary Kinnear,1998 Kinnear history U of Manitoba analyzes women s work in Manitoba from 1870 to 1970 and shows it was in every domain undervalued She describes how early pioneers East European immigrants and professional women lived and provides insight into what they thought of the work world often in their own words Canadian card order number C98 900861 4Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
