Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Tracy Ann Hayes, Theresa Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15. This book is a collection of papers from an international interdisciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life. The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people's lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks. From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends, this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts. Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people's past, current realities and future possibilities. Selected Letters of Vernon Lee, 1856-1935 Sophie Geoffroy, Amanda Gagel, 2020-09-16. Vernon Lee was the pen name of Violet Paget (1856-1935), a prolific author best known for her supernatural fiction and her radical polemics. She was also an active letter writer whose correspondents include many well-known figures in fin de siècle intellectual circles across Europe. However, until now, no attempt has been made to make these letters widely available in their complete form. This multi-volume scholarly edition presents a comprehensive selection of her English, French, Italian, and German correspondence compiled from more than 30 archives worldwide that reflect her wide variety of interests and occupations as a Woman of Letters and contributor to scholarship and political activism. Letters written in a language other than English have been expertly translated by scholars: Sophie Geoffroy from the French, Crystal Hall from the Italian, and Christa Zorn from the German. The edition focuses on those letters concerning the writing ideas and aesthetics that influenced Lee's articles, books, and stories. Full transcriptions of some 500 letters covering the years 1856-1935 are arranged in chronological order along with newly written introductions that explain their context and identify the recipients, friends, and colleagues mentioned. Since scholarship on Lee's critical and creative output is still in the beginning stages, these letters will serve a purpose to students and researchers in a number of academic fields. In this second volume covering the years 1885-1889, the 421 assembled letters follow Violet Paget (Vernon Lee) in her early thirties. Recovering from the stinging reception of her first novel and from Annie Meyer's death, she turns to essay writing on aesthetics and ethics and ghost stories. After Mary Robinson's engagement
