Voorhoeve, Annabel Teh Gallop, 2014 Tidak tersedia apa pun East Timor at the Crossroads Peter Carey, G. Carter Bentley, 1995-09-01 In a rapidly changing post Cold War world where many age old conflicts and injustices are at last being put to rights East Timor stands out as a still unresolved tragedy In the past twenty years 1975-95 this former Portuguese colony has been under Indonesian military occupation an occupation responsible for the death of over 200 000 of its inhabitants a third of its pre 1975 population and the destruction of much of its indigenous society Yet despite enormous odds the people of East Timor continue to fight for the independence which was denied them in the mid 1970s Twenty years on there is now a very real chance for a new beginning in East Timor This book which brings together contributions by both East Timorese and Western specialists of East Timor provides a compelling account of the process by which a once isolated and traditional society has been forged into a nation with a deep sense of its own identity rooted in its unique religious cultural linguistic and historical heritage Indonesia is at last beginning to realize the cost of Third World colonialism and its Western allies are becoming less tolerant of its security state methods The last section of this book considers the new diplomatic initiatives which are currently in train under the auspices of the UN to bring about a resolution to the Timor problem without jeopardizing the integrity of the Indonesian Republic An extensive bibliography of titles on East Timor published between 1970 and 1994 will prove especially useful for scholars The Age of Revolutions in Global Context, c.

Noor, Stamford Raffles James Brooke John Crawfurd and Anna Leonowens were some of those who came from Europe or the United States to Southeast Asia in the nineteenth century and then wrote about what they saw Their writings deserve to be read now for what they truly were Not objective accounts of a Southeast Asia frozen in imperial time but rather as culturally myopic and perspectivist works that betray the subject positions of the authors themselves Reading them would allow us to write the history of the East West encounter through critical lenses that demonstrate the workings of power knowledge in the elaborate war economy of racialised colonial capitalism Many of the tropes used by these colonial era scholars and travellers such as the indolence or savagery of the native population are still very much in use today which means we still live in the long shadow of the 19th century Matahari Books
